

Biblical Proof for the Trinity

Today we are told that all religions lead to God, that Christianity is just one of many choices. However, in the gospels, Jesus does not allow for this plurality. Unlike every other religion, Christianity recognizes the divinity of Jesus Christ. The doctrine of the Trinity is one vital doctrine distinguishing true religion from false.

Some religions want us to believe that they, too, are Christian religions. Mormons and Jehovah's Witnesses like to emphasize our similarities. But their rejection of the divinity of Jesus separates them from the true Christian Church.

The Bible is clear – Jesus is God. Below is a list of passages from the Bible that make that evident. Begin at the top, work your way down, and recognize Jesus as Lord, as fully God.

By the way, while Jehovah's Witnesses use a different version of the Bible, which removes many references to the Trinity, this list can be used in their Bible. When someone comes knocking on your door, wanting to talk about Jesus, you can use this list. Using their Bible, move through the list, asking them if they agree with each summary of each verse, and by the end, they must admit that Jesus truly is Jehovah.
