

COVENANT OF LEADERS

I, Pastor Bill Saye, believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired Word of God, which proclaims the good news of God's creation and redemption through Jesus Christ. Acknowledging the authority of God's Word, I submit to it in all matters of life and faith.

I affirm three creeds—the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Athanasian Creed—as ecumenical expressions of the Christian faith. In doing so, I confess my faith in unity with followers of Jesus Christ throughout all ages and among all nations.

I also affirm three confessions—the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dort—as historic Reformed expressions of the Christian faith, whose doctrines fully agree with the Word of God. These confessions continue to define the way we understand Scripture, direct the way we live in response to the gospel, and locate us within the larger body of Christ.

Grateful for these expressions of faith, I promise to be formed and governed by them. I heartily believe and will promote and defend their doctrines faithfully, conforming my preaching, teaching, writing, serving, and living to them.

Along with these historic creeds and confessions, I also recognize the witness of Our World Belongs to God: A Contemporary Testimony and The Confession of Belhar as current Reformed expressions of the Christian faith that form and guide us in our present context.

I promise to present or receive confessional difficulties in a spirit of love and fellowship with my brothers and sisters as together we seek a fuller understanding of the gospel. Should I come to believe that a teaching in the confessional documents or the official positions of the church are not the teaching of God's Word, I will communicate my views to the church, according to the procedures prescribed by the Church Order and its supplements. If the church asks, I will give a full explanation of my views. Further, I promise to submit to the church's judgment and authority.

I will live in repentance for the sins I have committed against God.
I will use my spiritual gifts for the building up of the Body of Christ.
I will give back at least a tithe of the financial blessings that God has given to me.
I will disciple other believers, helping them to grow in their faith.
I will actively witness about Jesus to those who do not believe.

I honor this covenant for the well-being of the church to the glory of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Grateful for these expressions of faith, I promise to be formed and governed by them. I heartily believe and will promote and defend their doctrines faithfully, conforming my preaching, teaching, writing, serving, and living to them.

Along with these historic creeds and confessions, I also recognize the witness of Our World Belongs to God: A Contemporary Testimony and The Confession of Belhar as current Reformed expressions of the Christian faith that form and guide us in our present context.

I promise to present or receive confessional difficulties in a spirit of love and fellowship with my brothers and sisters as together we seek a fuller understanding of the gospel. Should I come to believe that a teaching in the confessional documents or the official positions of the church are not the teaching of God's Word, I will communicate my views to the church, according to the procedures prescribed by the Church Order and its supplements. If the church asks, I will give a full explanation of my views. Further, I promise to submit to the church's judgment and authority.

I will live in repentance for the sins I have committed against God.

I will use my spiritual gifts for the building up of the Body of Christ.

I will give back at least a tithe of the financial blessings that God has given to me.

I will disciple other believers, helping them to grow in their faith.

I will actively witness about Jesus to those who do not believe.

I honor this covenant for the well-being of the church to the glory of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
